

RECRUITMENT

Kick Off gives new volunteers an overview of volunteering in rugby, including what to expect, things they should be aware of and how community rugby can help

On side provides Club Volunteer Coordinators with ideas for recruiting, training, recognising and rewarding volunteers

Pitch In DVD should be played at volunteer recruitment events to inspire individuals to offer their help

Step 5 gives Club Volunteer Coordinators a guide for them to successfully place young volunteer in their clubs

Volunteer Fund Good Practice Case Studies (volume 1 & 2) gives CBs, clubs, and referee societies examples of how to successfully recruit new volunteers

Young Volunteers Leaflet provides young people, who are interested in volunteering in rugby, information on what they can do & how to get involved

RETENTION

Workforce Research 2005 gives the findings of an external study into the club rugby workforce including volunteers and paid staff

Workforce Research 2007 (Exec Summary) gives the findings of the most recent training needs analysis study conducted into the rugby workforce of volunteers (excluding coaches & referees)

Volunteer Strategy sets out the RFU & RFUW policy for the recruitment, retention and recognition of volunteers

Leadership Academy leaflet outlines the programme to develop future leaders vital for the success of clubs and CBs

Community Leaders Award provides rugby volunteers with modules on coaching, refereeing, child protection, community delivery and leadership ethos

Activate e-newsletter is published every two months and provides ideas for CVCs to recruit, retain and recognise their volunteer

RECOGNITION

President's XV rewards teams of volunteers for best practice projects to develop grassroots rugby

President's XV Good Practice Case Studies highlights those projects run by last season's winners and runners up in the President's XV award scheme

VIP Ties & Scarves nomination form is used to recognise outstanding service by individual volunteers

VIP Certificate are used by Club Volunteer Coordinators and CBs to recognise individual volunteers

Nike Young Volunteer 'Stash' Awards nomination form provides a means to recognise volunteers aged 16 to 24

Volunteer Recognition Booklet describes rugby traditions, new ideas and RFU schemes to recognise volunteers

Volunteer Resources

